

to the ...

...

May 28th, 1914

Right Honourable Viscount Bryce,

British Academy,

Eurlington House, Picadilly, London.

Dear Viscount Bryce:

I have asked Professor W. J. Alexander, the head of the Department of English in University College, Toronto, to act as our representative on the Committee that will arrange for the commemoration of the tercentenary of Shakespeare's death.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.